

Travel Routes to the Preserve

The car lover's route (Cedar Mountain Entrance)
Starting point from Brevard, North Carolina or Greenville, South Carolina. Travel on Highway 276 to the community of Cedar Mountain. Beside Grammy's Restaurant, on the eastern side of 276, turn onto Cascade Lake Road. Go 50 yards, then turn right onto Reasonover Road. Go 4 miles. At the end of the pavement, bear right onto Green River Road. Go 3/10 of a mile to the Preserve entrance on your left.

The true grit route (Tuxedo / Green River Road Entrance)
Starting point from Hendersonville, North Carolina or Spartanburg, South Carolina. Travel to Tuxedo via Interstate 26 and Highway 25. Take the Green River Road exit (exit #3) off of Highway 25. Turn west (away from Tuxedo). Go 10 miles. The Preserve entrance will be on your right. Caution: The last 4 miles is a bumpy, unpaved road. Most passenger cars can easily make it, but go slow and watch for potholes and wildlife.

Travel by Air

The Asheville Regional Airport is within an hour drive of the Green River Preserve. A camp representative, wearing a Green River Staff shirt, will meet arriving campers. Please make airline reservations well in advance – three months in advance is not premature. Flights should arrive and depart between 9:00 am and 12:00 noon if at all possible. Return airline tickets will be kept in the office until departure. There will be a $50.00 fee for arrivals and departures outside the prescribed times. Please make sure you send a flight schedule at least two weeks before your child arrives at camp.

If your child is flying to camp, you may wish to UPS his or her trunk to camp. For UPS delivery, use our mailing address. (The Green River Preserve, 301 Green River Road, Cedar Mountain, North Carolina 28718). Please be sure to have the trunk delivered well in advance of opening day.
